

HOMESCHOOL

day

Wednesday, October 18 | 9 am – noon
$4 per student | $4 per chaperone (max 2 per student)

The Atlanta Botanical Garden will host an exciting day of tours and activities exclusively for homeschool groups on Wednesday, October 18 from 9am – noon. Supplement your life science, botanical and environmental studies curriculum by visiting a tropical rain forest, a desert house, and a native pitcher plant bog. The Garden also has a 2-acre Children's Garden focusing on the interactions between people, animals and plants.

Garden Tours

Guided tours will meet in the admissions building. The tour will take groups through the outdoor gardens and the Gardens Under Glass. Tour times will be listed upon your arrival.

Garden Discovery Carts

Keep an eye out for fun and interactive stations around the Garden. Your group can learn about the Niki in the Garden exhibit, carnivorous plants and more.

Scarecrows in the Garden

Look for dozens of unique and zany scarecrows throughout the children's garden and woodland garden.
